Almost everyone who played Mario remembers Bowser. If not, he must not have finished the game or reached the final level. Bowser is the final boss who would keep Peach (Mario's princess) his captive till his dying breath. He is vicious and mighty; however, worry not because we aren't going to fight him. Instead, let's try to draw this monster, shall we?

Method 2 of 2: Chibi Bowser

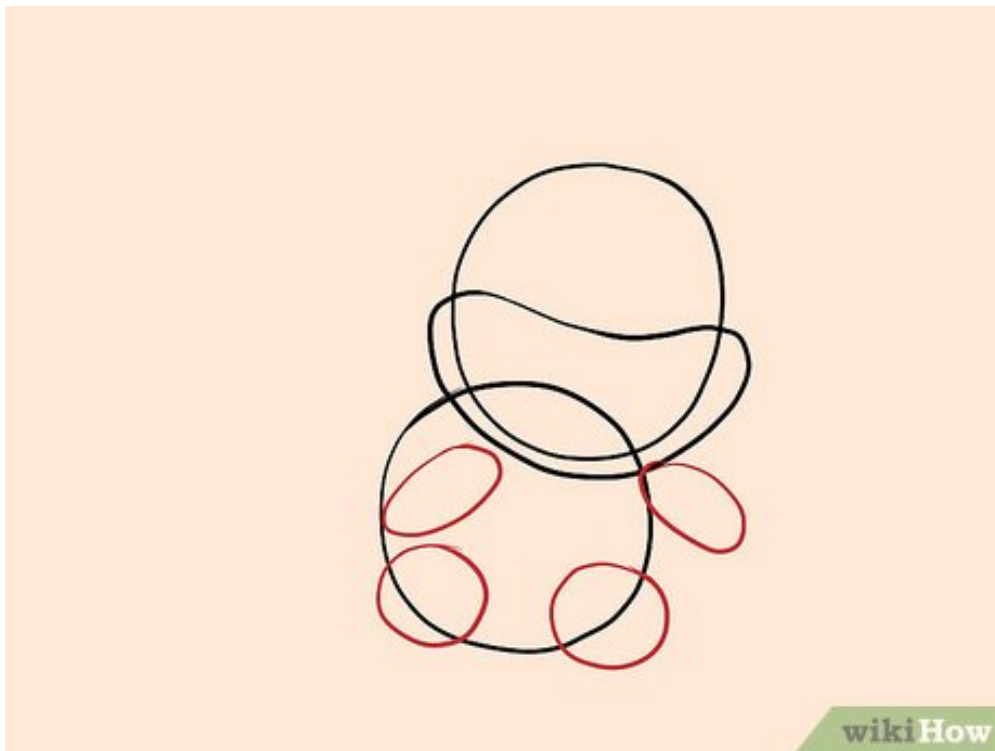

1 Draw a circle for the head.

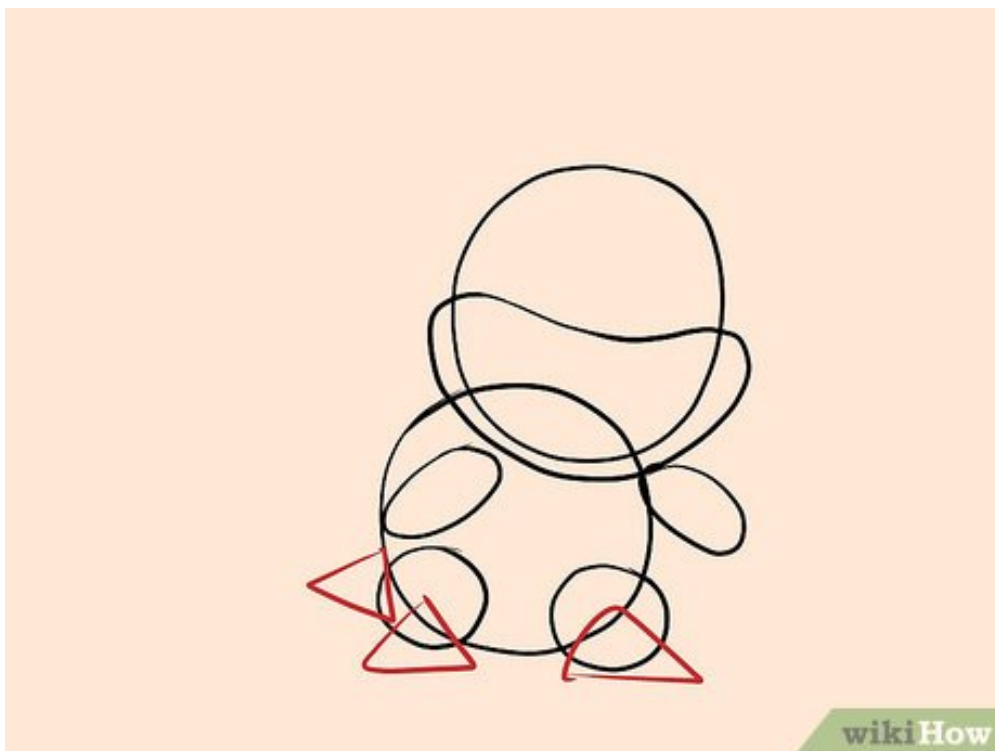

2 Draw a bean shape covering the lower half of the circle. This will be Bowser's snout.

3 Draw another circle about the same size as the first one for the body.

- 4 Draw two elongated ovals for the arms and two circles at the bottom for the legs. Bowser

- 5 Draw two triangles at the bottom for the feet and a third triangle at the back for the tail.

6 Draw an oval shape at the front of the “body” for stomach, two horns on top of the “head” and some spikes at the back and tail portion.

7 Draw the details for arms and feet (claws, nails, arm bands).

8 Draw details for the head (hair, eyes, nose, mouth).

9 Finalize the drawing and add some finishing touches to the line art.
